Hotel Schimmelpenninck Huys is settled in the middle of the city centre in Groningen. The hotel is situated in a former patrician residence which was known as an important building during the time of Napoleon. In the middle of the aroused city centre you will find the famous Martini Tower, theatre, museums, shopping areas, cinemas and much more to discover. Once you enter the old building you'll find lots of areas which are still authentic, just like they were a few hundred years ago. The "Barok" room which was a strategic meetingpoint of famous Dutch people, back in the time of Napoleon for example. It will give that little bit extra to your overnight stay in Groningen.
